

Shadow of Revolution

Eternal Legacy

Into the darkness, creeps the shadow of fear...
A bitter silence, with no more words to hear...
Shrieks of thunder, souls are torn within
The skies are empty now, but the evil tries to come in

Distant cries roar through the night
Shadows pass as my mind goes blank
I can't visualize what it's like
Fortified by the anguish inside of me

Finding the entrance, is a maze without an end
The minutes passing, as your soul begins to mend
It's a revolution that takes its toll on you
It rips apart your mind, and destroys your insides too

Distant cries roar through the night
Shadows pass as my mind goes blank
I can't visualize what it's like
Fortified by the anguish inside
I try to free my mind
These visions I see keep passing over me
Dream of time
Into my mind, I see the signs of the time

The time.... the time... the time... the TIME!!!

I seek a revolution for my, for my life... oh
A beginning or an ending who knows if
Who knows if it's life or death

It's a shadow of, of revolution... oh yeah
Just a shadow of, of revolution
It's a shadow of, of revolution... oh yeah
Just a shadow of, of revolution
