

Sometimes our lives flow like a river
Searching for the sea
Sometimes we're like leaves
Dancing in the storms of autumn
Sometimes we feel like a flower
Reaching for the light of the sun
Sometimes we're like sheep without a shepherd -
Lost in the desert

Have we lost our way - where's the destination
Close your eyes - let your spirits fly

Listen close - deep in your mind -
A hidden power called
Inner Strength
Follow the path - to the depth of your soul -
And you will find
Inner Strength

Sometimes life's like a call never getting an answer
Sometimes we're all like drifters looking for our way

And if you've lost your way -
Don't know the destination
Close your eyes - let your spirits fly

We are all travellers on a journey through time
Always wandering in this labyrinth... called life
What we'll find... it's in your mind

Like a river searching for the sea
Like a leaf dancing in the storm
Like a flower reaching for the sun
Like sheep without a shepherd
Like a river searching for the sea
Like a leaf dancing in the storm
Like a call never getting an answer
Like a drifter looking for the way
