

The Last One for Life

Eternal Tears of Sorrow

I hear the silent whispers,
Darkness still upon me,
All those empty words from the buried heart

I don't know where fear ends and where hate begins,
It's all the same to me,
Life is falling apart

Hand in hand...side by side
I walk with fate in the night

The red fluid of life is flowing right along my arms,
I feel the sweet blade diving deep inside,
This moment I've been waiting for so long a time, when I know the last cut will be for my life

I've looked through the eyes of pain and seen the smile of death I've wandered in the shadows of my fears

The feathers of a white dove were stained by darkened tears
The final tune is soon to be played

Hand in hand...side by side
I walk with death in the night
