Blood

In the shadows of the night broken by smoldering light The reek of innocent flesh, veils the silence Cry, hear them cry, as you liberate them in fire Lies, bloody lies, feel the weight upon your shoulders

I've seen the lies And it opened my eyes (my eyes) No reason why You led them to die (to die)

Life - so feeble in the hands of greed Demise - full circle, coming to you

Do you ever close your eyes and see what you've become? See the faces that you scorn? taste the tears of the forlorn? Life, what is life, so disposable for your gain Lies, bloody lies, feel the weight of all this pain

I've seen your ties And it opened my eyes (my eyes) No reason why You led them for lies (for lies)

Life - so feeble in the hands of greed Demise - full circle, coming to you

See the bodies burning A vision so bleak we create Twisted by greed I've seen all the lies Blood will always remain

I've seen your ties And it opened my eyes (my eyes) No reason why You led them for lies (for lies)

Their blood is on your hands Their blood is on your hands
