

I'm Still Crying

Eternal

I'm still crying

One final touch of your hand
But I just don't understand
You're out of sight, out of mind
Not out of my heart
The memory of a kiss
I sit back and reminisce
How we'd laugh a day away
Now my day turns to rain without you

Well I think and I pray
And you show me the way
But I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)
But a laugh and a smile
Only last for a while
'Cause I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)
Can I think of a time
That you weren't on my mind
Inside I'm dying
(I'm still, I'm still dying)
Should have known from the start
That you'd tear me apart
And my lover, lover would break my heart

(Baby baby baby baby)

I hold your spirit within
So precious to me since then
Can I hold on to the dreams?
Those sweet memories

Oh Lord help me to move on
Face that my lover is gone
Well I know it had to end
My lover became a friend
And that's you, that's you

Well I think and I pray
And you show me the way
But I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)
But a laugh and a smile
Only last for a while
'Cause I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)
Can I think of a time
That you weren't on my mind
Inside I'm dying
(I'm still, I'm still dying)
Should have known from the start
That you'd tear me apart
And my lover, lover

(All of these nights)

That you left me all alone
(Trying to find)
Got to save my soul
(Gonna be fine)
But I'm on my own
(But 'till then I'll still be crying)
But 'till then I'll still be crying

Well I think and I pray
And you show me the way
But I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)
But a laugh and a smile
Only last for a while
And I'm still crying
(I'm still, I'm still crying)
Can I think of a time
That you weren't on my mind
But I'm still crying
Should have known from the start
That you'd tear me apart
And my lover, lover would break my heart
