Anything to Say You're Mine

Etta James

Oh, oh, I'm so blue 'Cause I'm worried over you Oh I, I sometimes wonder Why I never hear from you

You promised to write me Each and every day And I haven't heard from you Since you went away

Oh, oh, I sit by my window pane Hoping for a letter One that never came

My heart cries for just one little line Anything to say you're mine

Oh, oh...

Well I said a prayer Every night Hoping, hoping and praying Someday, someday you'd write

Oh, oh, my heart cries for one little line Anything to say you're mine
