

Hold Me

Etta James

I've been lyin' here thinkin' over old times
Old friends of yours, old friends of mine
At least half of these hearts have been broken in two

Sometimes love just ain't strong enough
Some give in and some give up and it started me thinkin'
What would I do without you.

So you can hold me in your sweet lovin' arms
Take me where it's safe and warm
Hold me, just a little longer tonight.

People take love for a foolish thing
Some tear it down, some give it wings
I'd like to think
That we could fly away, hey hey yeah.

You always have, say always will Stand by me baby, till the world stands still
Say you will, say it tonight baby
Say you will.

Oh, hold me in your sweet lovin' arms
Take me where it's safe and warm
Hold me, just a little longer tonight.

Hold me just a little longer tonight.

Told me, I I I want you to take me
Oh baby now hold me baby

I I I want you to take me
Ohh hold me
I I I want you to take me now baby
Uuuh hold me
