

I Wish Someone Would Care

Etta James

The good, the bad, the hurt
All of this goes too

And I wish
(How I wish)
Oh, I wish someone would care
(How I wish, how I wish)

Sitting home alone, thinkin' about my past
Wonderin' how I made it
And a how long it's goin' to last

Success has come to lots of them
But failure is always there
Time, time waits for no one

And I wish, how I wish
Someone, someone would care

Some folks think you're happy
When you wear your smile
What about your tribulations
And, and all of your trials
Smile, smile about lots of things

The good, the bad, the hurt
All of this goes too

And I wish
(How I wish)
Oh, I wish
(How I wish)

How I wish
(How I wish)
How I wish that
(How I wish)
Someone, someone would care, yeah

The good, the bad, the hurt
All of these things go too
