

Bloodred Stars

Eucharist

Led by the lust to create art
I erase the sun and the sky with inspiration from deep within
I paint my own universe...in red.

And I am watching my hands art performance
I calmly leave my body behind, through a cold, gloomy mist
I am floating into the land of stars.

Sleepless nights filled with horror...
evil eyes stares into mine...
faces laughs as they melt before me...
King of red stars - guide me out of this nightmare,
and burn with me in my paradise...burn with me...
