Joshua

Eugene McGuinness

I love you, Joshua
I know I don't show it
But you really ought to know it
When we go la-di-da di-da di-da di-de
All I really wanna do
Is run around to you

I look around the bar
I'm looking for a moment
But the violent time is no condone it
And so I'm howling out so loud at the peppermint's moon
And you touch me like it's you
And you touch me like it's you

Baby is is the wrong choice of words to be heard
But Joshua, I leave you my world
My world, it's yours
My world is yours

I love you, Joshua
I know I don't show it
But you really ought to know it
When we go la-di-da di-da di-da di-de
All I really wanna do
Is run around to you
