

Lyin' Eyes

Europe

I can tell
Just by the look
In your eyes, that the love is gone, that I once took

So much has changed
In the way you live
I bet there's nothing left that you can ever give

The words of a madman are spoken
I guess I'm not the only one
The heart of a sad man is broken

Eyes, lyin' eyes
You can fool anyone without disguise
Eyes, lyin' eyes
Your look is cold as ice

It's in your blood
It floats in your veins
I sacrifice myself but all I feel is pain

You've done me wrong
You've been so bad
It's the last time a battle is lost
Where I'm the one who's sad

The words of a madman are spoken
I guess I'm not the only one
The heart of a sad man is broken

Eyes, lyin' eyes
You can fool anyone without disguise
Eyes, lyin' eyes
Your look is cold as ice
Your look is cold as ice

I wish you'd die
I wish you'd break down and cry
I wish you'd move
And then I know I'd be satisfied

Can't you see
I'm on the edge
I can't look down
Is it me who's lost and never found?

The words of a madman are spoken
And I guess I'm not the only one
The heart of a sad man is broken

Eyes, lyin' eyes
You can fool, you can fool anyone
Eyes, lyin' eyes
Your look is cold as ice
Look is cold as ice
