

I've Tried Everything

Eurythmics

The truth of life is the greatest gift
But I don't think I can make it fit
And who would guess that it would come to this
When I've tried everything

And I should know but I can't explain
The endless noise sounding in my brain
Who would have thought that you could feel such pain
When you've tried everything

Ooh, you're a loser now
Yeah, you're a loser
Yeah, you're a loser
Now

I should be cool but I'm burning hot
I should be good but I fell apart
Don't look at me now, don't even start
'Cause I've tried everything
Yeah I've tried everything

Ooh, you're a loser now
Yeah, you're a loser
Ooh, you're a loser now
Yeah, you're a loser (loser loser loser)
Now
