

This Is the House

Eurythmics

This is the house

This is the hill

This is the story - it's a little thing

A lock of hair

An invisible smoke trail

Nothing there but the dust and the rust

Oh, oh, oh everything changes

This is your picture (it's in black and white)

This is the family having a party

There's a crack in the ceiling

And there's an open door

Nothing there but the dust and the rust

Oh, oh, oh everything changes
