

Gloomy Garden

Evadne

Now, i'm here alone, wandering across the lands where everything ends

I walking alone looking for my lover, looking for you

It hovers on me the night of the times

The shortest way to meet you under my feet has begun,

The white light is blinding me but let me get closer to you

Against the light i can't see clearly

The white light is blinding me

The same light dazzles my heart

Beyond the light i'm sure that you're there

It hovers on me the night of the times

The shortest way to meet you again

This white light. against the light i can't see clearly

This white light. beyond the light i'm sure that you are

Gloomy place full of light. souls are dancing and laughing around me

Gloomy place empty of life. they are whispering me that i wasted my life

In this gloomy garden i'm searching what i've loved most

In this gloomy garden i have lost all

Is just a dream

Is just an illusion

A broken dream

A foolish illusion
