

Fly Away

Evan and Jaron

You call me to tell me you're sorry
That you're moving away with the day
Well I'll be alright without you
You weren't that good to me anyway

You promise that it's not about me
That I gave you everything
And you don't want to live without me
But you don't want to tangle me in your kite strings

Fly away if you want to
I would never try to hold you down
You can fly away if you want to
Just don't crash on me when you hit the ground

Don't pretend that you're crying
When you're halfway to somebody else
I don't need to know all the details
You can keep them to yourself

You can come around if you want to, I don't care
Your pretty eyes won't save you
Not like they used to, I'm looking through you
