Is It All That Great Without Me

Evan and Jaron

Could you speak a little louder Cause I thought I heard you say That you need me And you're coming back to stay I guess it's harder to say what's on your mind When you haven't told The truth at any time And now it's time to divide You take what's yours And I'll take mine Is it all that great without me I really want to know Was it easy to forget me Cause your eyes are saying no Did you find a broken rainbow With an empty pot of gold Well if it's all that great without me Then I'm glad you let me go I don't mean to sound so vengeful Or to hit you when you're down But you took my house of dreams And burnt it to the ground And now you say you're really sorry Well that's really nice to hear But where were you When everything we had Got up and disappeared And now it's time to let go Walk through that doorway And let it close When you walk into the sun And turn your back on everyone Well the world keeps spinning Round and round And what you had is gone
