Live To Die

Evans Blue

The fire's gone away
Truth is left to blame for all
The damage I have made
I feel the past escape
The want to know the way to you
Left me here to fade

I lost the fight
There's nothing left to bleed
No one left to free here
Pick me up
And give me back my belief
Feed me lies
There's nothing left to see
No room left to breathe
So pick me up
And give me back my belief
Live to die

Peace
It's just another word
Just another victim to the faults of you and me
I try to understand you
I try
Believe me I do
But you choose to turn and walk away

You live your life
But no one hears the screams
We stay alive
Never fall asleep
