

Painted

Evans Blue

If I could find the time to speak
I'd try to find a thousands way to prove you wrong
Falling on my face
I'm chasing all the lines of your skin
And all your pirouette mistakes
So dance until you're brand new Ignore the fight inside that scares you

Look before you end it all
Look before you shut your eyes
For the last time
Theres no more room to go back down
Your picture trends in black and white
(I will show you)
I will show you what it's like

Let them say all that they want
I'll wipe away your painted wings till your heroes come
If you doubt it looks so new
Then the venom in your eyes will control you

Well I hate pouring my heart out
When it's fading fast
And streaming down your leg

Look before you end it all
Look before you shut your eyes
For the last time
Theres no more room to go back down
Your picture trends in black and white
(I will show you)
I will show you what it's like

She whispers in his ear (Don't hurt me)
Don't hurt me, (Don't forget me) don't forget me
Don't hurt me, I'm still not put back together

Look before you end it all
Look before you shut your eyes
For the last time
Theres no more room to go back down
Will you fight for me and not back down
Your picture trends in black and white
(I will show you)
I will show you what it's like

(If you let me me)
Your picture trends in black and white
(That we painted)
I will show you what it's like

(Instrumental Break)

I am right here and I'm waiting
I can see you but you cant see me (16x)
