

Still Here Waiting

EVE 6

Come on!

Lay off the coffee,
and the kafka,
and the coughing.
And, lay off the means to the end
And mean what you say more often.

Lay off the, laying off the smiling, the trying Lay on me, lay on me, lay on me

It's another day the way things go it's gona go around again
I know it

I'm still here waiting for you (4x)

Lay off the moaning, and the groaing,
and the stonings.
Lay off the cons,
and all the condenscendly tonings

Lay off the, laying off of the smiling, the trying
Lay on me, lay on me, lay on me

It's another day the way things
go it's gona go around again
I know it

I'm still here waiting for you (8x)
