

A New Dawn

Evergrey

Brought into this world
Met by open arms
See, I was born as a hero
But deep inside this kingdom
I know that that's untrue
Given too many reasons
Lost my faith in you

Civitas
Civitas Diablo

On and on we rise we fall

This king is crowned by errors
Lost right to the throne
So place your crown of errors
Your king - no soul!
All that we ever wanted
Was just to feel like you
But we're locked inside this prison of empty echoes

On and on we rise we fall

I need to see
See the inside of me
Straight into the depths to unlock it all
To set all free
I know you feel the same
