A Touch of Blessing

Climbing walls of an endless circle Walking paths you never heard of Struggling in an endless battle Searching for a higher purpose

Drowning in betrayals river The freezing cold will make you shiver Join the world of greater learning Crown me king and be my servants

Mislead by beauty One you rarely find So loving and friendly It's one of a kind

Their arms wide open Willing to take me in No doubts in choosing A world free from sin

All the dreams I had All my future wishes Put aside for a greater journey All the things I planned Left my friends so coldly Put aside for a Higher...

Mislead by beauty One you rarely find So loving and friendly It's one of a kind

One single army Unite as one A touch of blessing Which cannot be undone

Drowning in betrayals river The freezing cold will make you shiver Join the world of greater learning Crown me king and be my servants

All the dreams I had All my failure wishes Put aside for a greater journey All the things I planned Left my friends so coldly Put aside for a higher purpose
