Missing You

I missed you since forever I longed for you when I was hurt Longed so long I can't remember Were there ever days of heaven?

Replace this pain with something new Magic thoughts of white turned blue I'm clinging to what seems a tale Searching for the Holy Grail

And I've been missing you forever And I've been missing you forever

Grand brushes of white and blue Where one is Me And one is You Hopes of highs soon joined by lows And thoughts of why last sung by bows The fire arrows that lands in snow Wake up hollow

Replace this pain with something new Magic thoughts of white turned blue I'm clinging to what seems a tale Searching for the Holy Grail

And I've been missing you forever And I've been missing you forever Evergrey
