

My Allied Ocean

Evergrey

This is for us
I'm fear I'm flight
In darkened waters we must unite
My allied ocean, my queen, my death
A sun explosion
It manifests

When darkness is falling
Want the world to burn
The fire to spread and there's nowhere to turn
And the end of the rope
I can't hold on
Want this world to burn
Want this world to burn

This emptiness not transient
And it will never stop it's never silent
My allied ocean
My life escape
A sun I was but never felt

When darkness is falling
Want the world to burn
The fire to spread and there's nowhere to turn
At the end of the rope
I can't hold on
Want this world to burn
Want this world to burn
