

Solitude Within

Evergrey

Cold is the air that I breath sleepless but I don't mind the rain With fear I strive but still enjoying the pain I'm awaiting the dawn
as I welcome the end

If you ever felt the way that I feel helpless and help is all you need In tears you try but there is no way
no way you can win
Solitude Within

Cold but I don't mind the rain Fear of...

My heart is pounding
never so frightened
My body's trembling
I'm dying
Dying

Cold but I don't mind the rain
Fear of

Being alone again
All I ever wished for was a vengeance on solitude
And all I ever longed for...

The presence of you
Cold but I don't mind the rain
Fear of being alone again
Cold but I don't mind the rain
fear of Solitude Within
