State of Paralysis

Evergrey

See my sorrow

My tears when they fall

Feel my anguish

Where's my shelter when I am cold

My eyes seek something

But finds nothing at all

My souls screams for mercy

Where's my guidance when I'm lost

The will I had ain't strong enough
The strength I seek ain't there
And my world is dead
My future's broken
Cause it all stays the same

They're coming
They're coming... here
