

I'm Over It

Everlife

(I'm over it)
Hey guys i'm in trouble
I didn't mean to cause nobody harm
I can see I'll always need forgiveness
(yeah) inside I can feel it
I can almost hear it from your lips
Its cool your telling me to let it go (yeah)

No clouds hanging over
No clouds hanging over me
No chains pulling me down
(I'm as free as i can be)

I don't have the time today to worry 'bout tomorrow
Your the only way to forget my yesterdays
When i fill the deepest ocean
with the tears of my emotion
you make 'em dry yeah your the reason why I'm over it

I'm over it
No more regret
No more thinkin' 'bout what coulda been Theres more to give it when you give it up(uh oww)
Untied, untangled this heart's ready and available
Dear God, always make the most of me

My cares are sailing out,
Sailing out to sea
Fears flyin' away I'm as free as I can be

I don't have the time today to worry 'bout tomorrow(yeah)
Your the only way to forget my yesterdays
When i fill the deepest ocean
with the tears of my emotion
you make 'em dry yeah your the reason why I'm over it

No more, you're the reason why,
No more, sailing out,
No more, yeah,
You're the reason why, sailing out

No clouds hanging over
No clouds hanging over me
No chains pulling me down
(I'm as free as i can be)

I don't have the time today to worry 'bout tomorrow
Your the only way to forget my yesterdays
When i fill the deepest ocean
with the tears of my emotions
you make 'em dry yeah your the reason why I'm over it

I don't have the time today to worry 'bout tomorrow
Your the only way to forget my yesterdays
When i fill the deepest ocean
with the tears of my emotion
you make 'em dry yeah your the reason why I'm over it

No more regret
No more thinkin' 'bout the coulda been
