

Lead The Way

Everlife

Where is the help
Where is the light
I'm crawling in a haze
I'm making a vow I'm taking a stand
I'm starting to change my ways

I need to know when its time to go
To a place to be with you

I'm about to walk I'm about to run
I'm about to lose
Lose my way
I can hardly talk I can barely see
I'm counting on you
You lead the way

Somebody said your watchin' over me
I find it hard to believe
If I'm hearing you right
I'll give up the fight
And let you have all of me

Be my eyes oh be my thoughts be my everything
Its my chance Its my choice

Oh oh yeah
You lead the way
I can hardly talk I can barely see
I'm counting on you
You lead the way
