

Set Me Free

Everlife

Everybody has a reason A longin' A hunger to reveal
It seems as if every where you turn
I was searchin' for the answer lying to be free

You change me deep inside
I'm messing up look in my eyes
I'm searching for one true love
Take my hand and set me free

Everytime I'm drifted
Sailing out to sea
The rock of my salvation is callin' out to me
I'm waiting for a--
I'm--
I'm looking for the piece only you can fix for me

Your love has shown me free Now I'm free
Your love has shown me free Now I'm free
I'm free your love will never die
Yeah--
