

Know It's True

Evermore

Moonlight shines, down its rays, oh
Fire I see, in your gaze, oh
And I know it's true, believe it too, can feel it too, oh
And it's clear to me, no fantasy, reality, oh

As a child, I had a dream, oh
I saw a bird, with broken wings,
I woke up,
And I know it's true, believe it too, can feel it too, oh
And I know it's near, I fail to hear, cause it's in the air, oh

Oh, tonight, just feel alive,
Try again
Tonight, to be alive, to live inside, we die again
A sign, in your eyes, oh fire, will rise again,
It'll take you over, and burn away tonight
