

Pieces

Evermore

Here you go again, rainy day friend
Your head in your hands, won't you understand
That you, are not the first to fall into pieces

You're not the first to fall into pieces
Into pieces, into pieces, into pieces

So it turns out all your plans
They were built upon the sand
You're afraid to take a stand
But I know that you can

Cos you, are not the first to fall into pieces
You won't be the last to fall into pieces
In front of everyone

You're not the first to fall into pieces
Into pieces, into pieces, into pieces

We all fall apart sometimes
We all fall apart sometimes
No no, you're not alone, you're not alone
No no, I hope you know, I hope you know

You're not the first to fall into pieces
Into pieces, into pieces, into pieces
You're not the first to fall into pieces
Into pieces, into pieces, into pieces

You're not the first
No-o-o-o, No-o-o-o
No-o-o-o, No-o-o-o
Cos you are not the first to fall
