

Finish What You Started

Every Avenue

It's not enough to be what you wanted
Stuck in love, fighting your way out
Your string's attached to all my limbs
And I know you're about to let me down, down

Let me tell you, leave behind you
Never ends, never ends

If you ever learn just to walk away
Then kill me with the words that you didn't say
Finish what you started
Push until you feel I'm about to break
Littering into pieces of what you take
Just finish what you started so we can do it again

I know it's bound to happen
The road you take leads right back to me, me
Your pill gets hard to swallow
Each time I have to hear you say, say

That you're sorry that you left me
Once again, once again

If you ever learn just to walk away
Then kill me with the words that you didn't say
Finish what you started
Push until you feel I'm about to break
Littering into pieces of what you take
Just finish what you started so we can do it again

So pick it up right back where you left off
Say the things that you know will turn me on
You speed up, I'm gone and then you're gone
But everything you get you'll get just like I won

If you ever learn just to walk away
Then kill me with the words that you didn't say
Finish what you started
Push until you feel I'm about to break
Littering into pieces of what you take
Just finish what you started so we can do it again

If you ever learn just to walk away
Then kill me with the words that you didn't say
Finish what you started
Push until you feel I'm about to break
Littering into pieces of what you take
Just finish what you started so we can do it again
