

Half As Much As You

Every Avenue

I don't see the point in all this
And maybe I don't take my chances
And maybe we could just forget this
And maybe we could fall in love

Maybe you could pick my heart again
Maybe I will give you that chance
Now I never said I would hurt you
And baby, I never planned to

I don't know why I don't need a reason
When I look your eyes, my heart stops beating
I've finally found something worth to put me through
And I won't give up until I stop breathing

(Don't stop me there, don't stop me there)

I think I (?)
And wonder what good comes with this
And maybe we could think this over
Cuz maybe we could make it through this
Are you even thinking of me?
And do you even miss me half as much as I miss you?
Half as much as I miss you

I don't know why I don't need a reason
When I look your eyes, my heart stops beating
And I've finally found something worth to put me through
And I won't give up until I stop breathing

You are my everything
My only reason for breathing

I don't know why I don't need a reason
When I look your eyes, my heart stops beating
I've finally found something worth to put me through
And I won't give up until I stop breathing

I don't know why I don't need a reason
When I look your eyes, my heart stops beating
I've finally found something worth to put me through
And I won't give up until I stop breathing

You are my everything
My only reason for believing
