

Dream Goes On

Every Little Thing

I become insecure
To everything I try to do

If you are going to keep on walking
The courage to take the first step
Becomes the rode for hope

I will become happy
I already decided
So I will not be lost

I won't lose
I will try my best
The tears will shine my tomorrow
I want to be honest
The feelings I continue to believe
Will start to change my tomorrow

See, the story
Starts right here

Rain started to fall
Like my sadness
Seeping into my heart
