

Time Goes By

Every Little Thing

Wow wow wow...

Surely, surely everyone has
Things that aren't enough
But if we hold out too much hope
We hurt people

Wow wow wow...

We fought whenever we met, didn't we?
Did we stay together too long?
Neither of us would give in
And so the gap between us kept growing

Kissing and holding each other
That was probably all we needed
We'd forgotten all the basics
Of loving someone

The joy of believing in each other
And the pain of hurting each other
I hope someday
We can love each other as we are
Time goes by...

We always made excuses
When something didn't suit us
Yeah, that's something
We had in common

We always longed
For comfort and honesty
But we couldn't
Put it into words easily

Remember one more time
How we loved each other back then
Until the time comes
When we can say thank you
Say goodbye...

In the instant
That the scars that remain disappear
I'll surely know the meaning
Of true tenderness

Unable to turn our backs on the days that had passed
We felt time go by slowly
I hope someday
We can meet again with a smile
Time goes by...

Wow wow wow...
