

Comfort Zone

Everyday Sunday

I'm sitting here again
Another Sunday morning
Trying to figure out just who to be
I can't keep going on like this
I've gotta break away

Woah, woah, everything I've said is over
Woah, woah, I can't take this any longer
Woah, woah, I need to get out of this zone
Woah, woah, I hope you see where I'm coming from

It's time to make a move change my fate
Let go of all the things that feed my complacency
Don't wanna be a wannabe

Woah, woah, everything I've said is over
Woah, woah, I can't take this any longer
Woah, woah, I need to get out of this zone
Woah, woah, I hope you see where I'm coming from

No more wasted days, anymore

Woah, woah, everything I've said is over
Woah, woah, I can't take this any longer
Woah, woah, I need to get out of this zone
Woah, woah, I hope you see where I'm coming from
