

Do What Diddy Did

Everyone Dies In Utah

My...

Time has come...

to overthrow you my conquerors,
my demons

Wake me up before it's too late
I'll become someone that you'll hate
Do you get the message?
Do you get the message?

I'm thinking I could break this bond

I'm gonna shout it till there's nothing left to you

I'm thinking I could break this bond

I'm gonna scream till there's nothing left for you

(I don't want your simple life, you've gotta become something greater)

We're talking rise baby,

You'll feel it in your toes and even in your walls maybe and every time you decide on an option you'll find

There's no single place to hide or reside in the darkness of your mind

You've gotta give a little

You've gotta give a little more

You've gotta give a little

More than you did before

You can't accept your life as it is right now

You've gotta shake things up

Hey, lets shake things up

Be someone tonight

I see the truth in all your lies

I see the truth in all

Wake me up before it's too late
I'll become someone that you'll hate
Do you get the message?
Do you get the message?
