

Polarities: The Shift

Everyone Dies In Utah

Who is there
Is there no one but me
I yell louder but
You still barely hear my screams
You stand there with your Eyes wide shut to all that's good
Where do you see the light
You can only fix what's broken from the inside
When running away can't stop the pain
Where is your light

I got lost on the road on the way home
Couldn't find the way back to see your note
You don't know how much it hurts to know
To know I let you go
He's clouding all my vision to see
so I broke
Through the clouds, did to him what he did to me
And now he's a coward as he walks with a face full of
Scars

You won't be saved tonight
You won't be spared your life
The decision's been made
Your wrongs have become my wrath
You won't leave here alive
You won't leave here alive

I got lost on the road on the way home
Couldn't find the way back to see your note
You don't know how much it hurts to know
To know I let you go
He's clouding all my vision to see
so I broke
Through the clouds, did to him what he did to me
And now he's a coward as he walks with a face full of
Scars

What's to stop me
From taking your life
I lost myself years ago
Look at what you've created
A monster disguised by hate
But I can change this fate
And emerge to purge the curse

It's over now, it's over now
We've reached the end this time
