

Don't Try

Everything Everything

Don't try to hide it, no, don't try
Don't try to hide it, no, don't try
Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh
Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh

Is it gonna take a battle of wits
Well I can take a body, I can take a body blow
Bic your head and show your teeth to them honey
We can take it slowly, we can take it really slow

Cos everybody says you never speak up
And never take a moment, never take a moment's rest
I see you skulking on the basketball court
And I wanna be the perfect, the p-p-p-p-perfect test

Don't try to hide it, no, don't try
Don't try to hide it, no, don't try
Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh
Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh

I know you're waiting for a miracle call but
I could disappoint you, I could disappoint you now
You shut the door and get your hibernate on
It's never gonna leave you if you never talk it out

I know you think you're in a bottomless pit
Hell! I'll be at the bottom, waiting with my shivers and shakes
The ground's not rushing up to meet you just yet, oh!
Earth is but a garden, forget about your guarded aches

Don't try to hide it, no, don't try
Don't try to hide it, no, don't try
Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh
Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh

Don't try to hide it, no, don't try
Don't try to hide it, no, don't try
Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh
Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh

Don't try to hide it
