Everything Everything

Don't try to hide it, no, don't try Don't try to hide it, no, don't try Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh

Is it gonna take a battle of wits Well I can take a body, I can take a body blow Bic your head and show your teeth to them honey We can take it slowly, we can take it really slow

Cos everybody says you never speak up
And never take a moment, never take a moment's rest
I see you skulking on the basketball court
And I wanna be the perfect, the p-p-p-perfect test

Don't try to hide it, no, don't try Don't try to hide it, no, don't try Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh

I know you're waiting for a miracle call but I could disappoint you, I could disappoint you now You shut the door and get your hibernate on It's never gonna leave you if you never talk it out

I know you think you're in a bottomless pit
Hell! I'll be at the bottom, waiting with my shivers and shakes
The ground's not rushing up to meet you just yet, oh!
Earth is but a garden, forget about your guarded aches

Don't try to hide it, no, don't try Don't try to hide it, no, don't try Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh

Don't try to hide it, no, don't try Don't try to hide it, no, don't try Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh Cos it'll have you in the end, ohhhh

Don't try to hide it
