

I Had Enough

Evil Conduct

When I see you in the street
You don't dare to look me in the eye
You talk behind my back
But when we meet you almost cry
Who's the tough guy now
Don't you try to run away
I've had enough of you
And the games you play

I've had enough of you...bastard
I've had enough of you...arsehole
I've had enough of you...wanker
I've had enough of you

You always hoped
That we would never meet
Telling lies about me
Now you're gonna bleed
No way out
Don't want no excuses anymore
You're days are counted
You're gonna hit the floor
