

One Of The Boys

Evil Conduct

When we were young, this is nothing new
Nicked from time to time by the fucking boys in blue
We didn't care, didn't give a shit
Didn't have no future, no matter what we did

[Chorus:]

One of the boys, one of the boys, one of the boys
I know that you and I will be mates until we die

I'm telling you, he will always be
More than just a friend, we're as close as family
And when I'm down he will pull me through
He will do the things that we feels he's got to do

Then suddenly he said goodbye
He met a girl and moved away
But it's over now, he's full of misery
We'll cheer him up coz he will always be
One of the boys, one of the boys

But now he's back making lots of noise
Going down the pub, heavy drinking with the boys
The memories, I bet you'll understand
Take us back in time, like we're teenagers again
