

Wanna Know The Reason

Evil Conduct

I keep wondering what I've done
I'm going out for a little fun
But suddenly I'm nicked
Can anybody tell me what is going on

There's nothing now that i can do
I'm pointed out instead of you
I'm innocent but no-one wants to know
But that is nothing new

Do you know the reason
Why we always get the blame
I wanna know the reason
Tell me now!

Life is real it's not a game
Things go wrong, it's a crying shame
But then again being accused of things I didn't do
It's still the same

I'm wondering what can I do
I've had enough, fed up with you
I wanna know way do you keep on lying
About the things I didn't do
