Protected By What Gods

Evocation

Through ancient rites you speak the words Once holy god arise Religious battles gods command Hand in hand combined

Raise your hands praise your lord
Forgive us for our sins
In his command slave all false
And break them till they bleed
Tortured nations beggars bleed
Defended by some sign
You know your wrong but still proceed
You think you are protected
Protected by what gods

Defined by death you strike the world Since promised land awaits Strike the past blood behold Tyranity unfold

Beheaded sane close your eyes We have no calm at sight With toxic blood we stain the pure No holy god we'll find
