

Are You Breathing

Exilia

Now, I'm running out of time
I despise what you have done
You will reap what you have sown
You will be surprised my dear
I'll be there when you forget
To remind you about the mess you left
I'm trapped inside you soul
Can you hear me?
You're losing all control
Are you breathing?
I'm feeding on your fears
Can you feel me?
I wisper in your ear
Are you breathing?
Are you breathing?
It's all, you don't see and you don't care
But you can't deny my dear
There's a price to pay somehow
You will wonder why I'm here
Is there something you regret?
Do you recognize my voice again?
I'm trapped inside your soul
Can you hear me?
You're losing all control
Are you breathing?
I'm feeding on your fears
Can you feel me?
I wisper in your ear
Are you breathing?
Are you breathing?
I'm eating your lies
Eating you lies
I'm done with your lies
