

In My Veins

Exilia

I don't know where I belong
Where are the angels when everything 's wrong
My eyes are looking above
Wonder if the sky has a door
I don't know where you have gone
You know that I need a reason for all
Don't know if you are next to God
But I feel you here in my blood
In my veins
In my heart
Your life will shine again
Your life will shine again
Through my veins
In my heart
Your life will shine again
Your life will shine again
Through me
Can't fill the void in this world
You were the best part I used to adore
You showed me that feeling torn
I'ts just a way to reborn
In my veins
In my heart
Your life will shine again
Your life will shine again
Through my veins
In my heart
Your life will shine again
Your life will shine again
Life will shine , life will shine
again and again
Life will shine , life will shine
Again and again
In my veins
In my heart
Your life will shine again
Through me
