

I planned it all
I look around once again
I put everthing away
All my dreams and memories
Ive done it all
The door is closed behind me now
Took the last step on the stairs
So many voices in my head
And Im here on the edge
The world is small enough for me
And the wind is in my hair
I am almost free
I just wanna run away
Only run away from here
I don't wanna close my eyes
While the world is drawing near
I don't wanna say goodbye
Your ring is in my hand
I just have to get away
Price of being different
You are here
I can hear your voice, my love
You cannot hear my words
But I just wanna let you know
Don't say any prayers for me
And I don't wanna see your tears
Cause you are the only one who does not deserve the blame
MOONY, I was on the edge
Finally the world was small
And the wind was in my hair
Now Ive really got it all
I just wanna fly away
Only fly away from here
I don't wanna close my eyes
While the world is drawing near
I don't wanna say goodbye
Your ring is in my hand
I just had to get away
Price of being different
Don't say any prayers for me
I just wanna run away
(Chorus)
Wont be coming back again
