

Without You

Exilia

Its sweet sweet sweet enough
Don't forget you
And it's cold cold cold enough
That I need you
I ask now how can I breathe
Its dark dark dark enough
Not to see the light
And it's just not easy enough to know why it
And Im here, and Im here, just wait for me
While Im living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, Im breathing but Im bleeding
And Ive got no place to go
Its sweet sweet
But you're gone from here
Im still looking for you
In everything you left behind for me
And it seems like now
You are calling me
And Im saying you never left me
And Im here, yes Im here, just wait for me
While Im still living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, Im breathing but Im bleeding
And Ive got no place to go
Without you
Without you
Without you
Without you
You calling me
How can I breathe, how can I breathe, how can I breathe
Without you
And Im here, and Im here
2x
While Im living my heart is screaming
For what I can't forget at all
Yeah, Im breathing but Im bleeding
And Ive got no place to go
Without you
Without you
Without you
Without you
