

A Path To Take

Exit Ten

Fly, crash and burn
Eventual fade is none of my concern
Lie, hurt yourself
I won't degrade my soul by hating you

I will not permit
Influence on how I stand how I sit
Narrow mindedness
Flippant insults thrown about in fear

And you and I realise that I'll be coming back
And I'll be showing you what I mean
And I'll be safe in this with you
And I will, set out a path to take

I'm better than you anyway
Why don't you look inside yourself
'Cos you might just find
What makes you like this
Makes you act maliciously

Fly and crash and burn
None of my concern
Lie and hurt yourself
I won't degrade my soul by hating you

You've excelled yourself
Sat amongst your fears and your doubts
Can't hide from your lies
Feelings fuelling parts we're here to play

And you and I realise that I'll be coming back
And I'll be showing you what I mean
And I'll be saving this for you
And I will, set out a path to take

I'm better than you anyway
Why don't you look inside yourself
'Cos then you might just find
What makes you like this
Makes you act maliciously

And you I'd do this for me
I'd be shining into you
And I will show you hate
I'll show you hate
I'll show you hate

Fly, crash, burn
Fly, crash, burn

I'm better than you anyway
Why don't you look inside yourself
'Cos You might just find
What makes you like this
Makes you act religiously

And you I'd do this for me
I'd be shining into you
And I will show you hate
I will show you the way
I will show you the way
I will show you the way
