

Better Than You

Exit Ten

Fly, crash and burn
Your eventual fade is none of my concern
Lie, hurt yourself
Won't degrade my soul by hating you

I will not permit
Influence on how I stand how I sit
Narrow mindedness
Flippant insults thrown across in fear
And you and I realise that I'll be coming back
And I'll be showing you what I mean
And I'll be safe in this with you
And I will, said I'm about to take

Better than you anyway
Why don't you look inside yourself
You might just find, what makes you like this
Makes you act religiously

Fly and crash and burn
None of my concern
Lie and hurt yourself
I won't degrade my soul by hating you

You've excelled yourself
Sat amongst your fears and your doubts
Can't hide from your lies
Feeling fuelling parts we're here to play
And you and I realise that I'll be coming back
And I'll be showing you what I mean
And I'll be safe in this with you
And I will, said I'm about to take

Better than you anyway
Why don't you look inside yourself
You might just find, what makes you like this
Makes you act religiously

And you would do this for me
I'll be shining into you
And I will show you hate
I'll show you hate
I'll show you hate
I'll show you hate

Better than you anyway
Why don't you look inside yourself
You might just find, what makes you like this
Makes you act religiously

And you would do this for me
I'll be shining into you
And I will show you hate
I will show you the way
I will show you the way
I will show you the way
