

See You Again

Exit!

I remeber when i saw you at the diner's
Yet my heart began to smile
You look like a little queen of heaven
An angel who brings me hope

I know nothing but one thing i know
You are the love of my life - and i must see you again

Then last night at the same old diner
I saw you again
We had a funny conversation
Until the diner had closed

I know nothing but one thing i know
You are the love of my life

I'm looking for you, i'm searching, i'm walking and i'm driving
Where can i see you again
I'm looking for you, i'm searching, i'm walking and i'm driving
I hope i see you again - i must see you again
